

Table of contents

The world after September 11

A) Introduction: How I experienced September 11	pp. 3 - 4
B) September 11 and its consequences for the world	pp 4 - 6
I. September 11, 2001: Chronological Order
II. Consequences for the world
1. Political and military consequences
1.1 How the world reacted	p. 6
1.1.1 United States of America	pp. 7 - 8
1.1.2 Germany	pp. 8 - 9
1.1.3 Other European states and Russia	pp. 9 - 10
1.1.4 Islamic and Arabian States	p. 11
1.2 The Afghanistan War	p. 12
1.2.1 Osama Bin Laden and al-Qaeda	pp. 12 – 13
1.2.2 The Taliban regime and the Northern Alliance	pp. 13 – 14
1.2.3 The Afghanistan War and its consequences	pp. 14 – 15
2. Economic consequences	p. 15
2.1 Consequences for companies	p. 15
2.2 Consequences for the world market	p. 16
2.3 Economic consequences on entertainment industry	pp. 16 – 17
2.4 Economic consequences on tourism	p. 18
3. Reactions of society and consequences for people	pp. 19 - 20
3.1 Solidarity and sorrow	pp. 20 – 21
3.2 Fury and anger	p. 21
3.3 Traumas and psychogenic disorders	p. 22
3.4 Anti war demonstrations and protests	pp. 22 – 23
C) End: Short summary, possible future impacts and personal statement	pp. 23 – 24
D) Appendix	p. 25
E) Sources	pp. 26 - 27